No. 173

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Mr. McCaul wanted Mr. Sifton to state what he proposed to do with the A. & G. W. contract. He had said this would be impossible until the report of the Royal Commission was ready. Mr. McCaul thought that the report would not influence the action.

INCREASE FOR MINERS

the rafters in the hay-loft of a livery stable here, $11,000 worth of jewels were discovered yesterday by detectives. For nearly four months, while the police of every city in the country have been endeavoring to trace them, the jewels hung undisturbed in the barn, where they had been hidden by a negro, who had stolen them from the home of Mrs. Hornsby in this city.

THE WEATHER

All west—Strong west winds, fair and comparatively warm.

London, June 24.—Since the death of King Edward until yesterday the Royal Standard was flown over Buckingham Palace in honor of the Queen Mother who is still in residence there. The Royal Standard is flown only for a monarch, and the fact that it was used by the Queen Mother was a source of considerable speculation. The only reason for her use of the standard was that there was no flag existing for that rarity in Great Britain, a Dowager Queen Consort. Now, however, a flag has been especially designed for her use and will be hoisted on the Palace tower. It is twenty-four feet long and twelve feet deep and is equally divided, the British Standard being on the left and the Danish Standard on the right.

New York, June 24.—Thousands of tired tenement dwellers, trying to sleep last night on the grass of Bat-

The expedition is entirely a business one, but nevertheless, the members of it will benefit greatly from the outing. Mr. Lowry is commissioned to draw a paper to write a series of letters or the country passed through, while Mr. Talbot is on a similar errand. Mr. Russell will make a number of sketches preparatory to his executing some on paintings, and Mr. Swan will take photographs for the use of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

The party is travelling over the Grand Trunk lines in the private car "Ireland," and is under the direction of Mr. Charlton. All speak very highly of the country passed through so far, and state that the crops along the route are in fine condition. They leave tomorrow morning at 9 a.m.

SCENIC RAILWAY

Buffalo, June 23.—Louise Koch, 16 years old, junior of Masten Park High School was fatally injured yesterday on the scenic railway at Crystal Beach where a school picnic was being held. The steamer was started for Buffalo on a record breaking run to save the girl's life, but she died just as the boat reached the dock. Miss Koch's father who had not heard of the accident, but who was expecting her on the evening boat, was the one when her body was brought ashore.

morning having walked in from Sacred Heart, in the Saddle Lake district, being three days on the road. The women are very hardy looking and are very much tanned through exposure. Both of the women are married and have several children. The husbands and the children remain at Sacred Heart on a homestead while they came to the city with the intention of trying to obtain work in some hotel. When they get together a little money they will return to their families.

MR. FACING-BOTH-WAYS

The Bulletin is getting its nerve

"There is a curious correspondence," it says in its issue of yesterday, "between the course pursued by the leading Conservative papers of the Province and that followed by those Liberal papers which undertook the support of the Alberta and Great West railways bargain. So remarkable is this co-relation of effort as to warrant the suspicion that both classes of papers draw their inspiration from a common fount or are under the direction of a common master."

There is absolutely nothing to warrant such a suggestion. The two daily papers which supported Mr. Rutherford are now supporting Mr. Sifton strongly, while their Conservative contemporaries are doing their best to defeat him in Vermilion and Mr. Mitchell in Medicine Hat. Where in the name of common sense does the collusion come in under these circumstances?

The Bulletin goes on to say that an attempt is being made by the two newspapers first mentioned, to read certain Liberals out of the party.

"But the failure of the attempt," it adds, "does not excuse the attempt being made. Nor does it do anything to better the object of it. What that object was there could be no manner of doubt. It was too apparent. It was simply to create a line of separation between the Premier and the insurgent Liberals. Could the Premier have been persuaded to go into a constituency and oppose a member of that body, his feeling toward himself must have been aroused in the minds of Mr. Riley's colleagues in the late disagreement."

No suggestion has been made that any Liberal, who has shown his willingness to support Mr. Sifton, should be read out of the party. Any line of separation which has been created between the Premier and insurgent Liberals the latter themselves have been responsible for.

When a man adopts the attitude towards Mr. Sifton that Mr. Riley has, it is impossible for them to get together. Those who acted with the member for Gleichen in the last House must make a choice between the two. This was the language which Mr. Riley used early in the present month.

"It will forever be a stain on the province and to the lasting disgrace of the individuals concerned when posterity is informed that two of the supposedly highest dignitaries of the province, a Chief Justice and a Lieutenant Governor were the prime instigators of this nefarious work."

"I hold it is the will and wish of the people of the province and it is today that Hon. W. H. Cushing should have been called upon to form a government. Any other action on the part of the Lieutenant Governor is contrary to constitutional practice and tends to discourage honesty and straightforwardness in public life."

This is exactly the language which is being used by Conservative speakers in Vermilion in their attempt to defeat the Premier. Yet the Bulletin raises its hands in holy horror over the suggestion that Mr. Sifton should oppose the return of Mr. Riley in Gleichen.

What kind of a leader does it think Mr. Sifton is? Mr. Cushing, it will be remembered, wired his approval of Mr. Riley's stand. Can there be any temporizing with these two gentlemen? If to oppose one of them would arouse ill-feeling in the minds of Mr. Riley's colleagues in the late disagreement, it cannot be helped. But there is no indication that the majority of those who acted under Mr. Cushing's leadership during the sitting of the Legislature are with him now. It is impossible for them to be so and with Mr. Sifton at the same time. Mr. Stewart of Sedgewick and Mr. Smith of Camrose are campaigning for the Premier in Vermilion. The former, in his speech at Irma, stated that he might be two or three Liberals in the House who would make trouble, but that the bulk of the party would be solidly behind the Premier.

That the Bulletin should at this stage be solicited to adopt this attitude should be adopted by the government towards these two or three, when they have already done all in their power to damage the government's cause a fairly clear indication that it doesn't exactly know where it is at. It sees that the Premier will succeed in establishing and maintaining a strong government and it is accordingly anxious to stand in with him. This is the measure of its loyalty to him. No one who followed it through its twistings and turnings of policy last winter can be in any doubt on this point. Whoever wins, it follows. At the same time its sympathies are with Mr. Cushing and Mr. Riley and whenever they are attacked it immediately rises to their defence.

FOOLS IN A BOAT

Two girls went out in a gasoline launch in Toronto Bay with two young men. The latter knew practically nothing about managing the craft, which collided with a ferry boat. The girls were both drowned and their escorts, who were saved, have been placed in such a position that few, whatever their lot, would want to change places with them.

"I suppose," said the coroner who presided at the inquest, "there is no doubt there is already enough evidence to show these two young men are responsible for the death of the two young women."

The affair revives an old, old question. Has any man who takes a woman out on the water any right to return without her? Can he justify using any of his strength to save himself while she perishes? Most people will answer in the negative. Those who during this and coming seasons are tempted to take such risks without being qualified to look after those in their charge would do well to take heed of this and other boating disasters. Only those who can swim well and who understand thoroughly what they are doing should undertake such responsibilities. If young fellows have only themselves to look after, they may take a chance and their action be nothing but foolhardy. To take those of the other sex along with them under these circumstances is, however, nothing short of criminal.

THE MARKET QUESTION

The following is an extract from a resolution adopted by the Calgary council last week:

"As there appears to be a difference of opinion as to the best site for a market, we recommend that the two last named sites be submitted to a vote of the people, including $50,000 for a market building."

Before the Calgary electors go to the polls they should find out whether they are registering their votes with the idea of settling the question of a market site or merely as a pastime. In Edmonton we voted some months ago on a similar question and nothing has been done by the council to give effect to the decision. In fact some of the aldermen believe that the people, though the vote stood about two to one in favor of deciding the matter right and want to put the market building on the site which was so emphatically turned down. We want a market established without delay and on the property selected by the popular vote.

THE CROP OUTLOOK

With winter wheat now heading out in the Edmonton district there should be some of it cut by August 1st. The weather has been exactly what is desired and there is every indication that the district will have one of the best years in its history. The outlook is most promising throughout the whole of the wheat belt. The exception of the country south of Calgary, where the requirements in the way of moisture are still far from satisfied. The Saskatchewan department of agriculture reports all crops two weeks ahead of last year, the standard condition being higher. The north central part of that province is the least favorable.

What Others Say

THE RUSH TO CANADA

(Springfield (Mass.) Republican)
The rush over the Canadian border is steadily increasing. Sixty cars a day now reach North Portal, in Saskatchewan, carrying 250 new settlers. The drain they cause in the United States is severe in North Dakota, Minnesota, South Dakota, Michigan, Washington, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and Montana. Last year's emigration to the Canadian west, it is estimated by the United States Bureau of Immigration, involved the transfer to Canada in the pockets of the settlers of $95,371,000. This year the

A PEERLESS CANDIDATE

(New York Sun)

The Democratic candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania, the Hon. Webster Grim, is one of the comeliest men in Bucks county; his profile is like a cameo, his eyes are soulful and a clean, wholesome, ethical atmosphere pervades him. If looks shall elect, the candidate of the Hon. Boies Penrose is already defeated. In Doylestown, where Mr. Grim lives, he is regarded as a paragon. The local bandmen almost blew their heads off at the reception in his honor when at the news came that he had received more votes than ex-treasurer Berry in the convention. More comies were for Grim, but Philadelphia stood like a rock for Grim, who is as good as he looks; a reformer in politics, a joiner (Grand Chief of the Knights of the Golden Eagle), a church organist, and a musician who "has composed a number of works, which brought much praiseworthy comment."

SASKATCHEWAN TO ALBERTA

(Mrs. A. Palmer in Ponoka Herald)
We had a daisy snowstorm the nineteenth day of May.

I covered up our meadows where the fire spoiled the hay.
We had a dandy blizzard the second day of June.

That froze the bottled corn and eclipsed our silver moon.

We have no spruce or tamarac to dry our worldly goods;
Ye who have Alberta had just stay back in the woods.
The rich plains of Saskatchewan don't raise a thing to burn,
And the water of the country is thick enough to churn.

So while you're digging stumps and roots and cutting tamarac logs,
So when you're feeding hens and calves and fattening little hogs;
And filling up the country with creameries best, and dairies,
Just pray for us poor beggars a shivering on the prairie.

PRISON CAMP TOO MUCH FOR TRAMPS

They're Getting Out of Northern Ontario as Quickly As They Can

North Bay, June 24.—The prison camp on the road to Porcupine is now a public jail and Police Magistrates in the northern country and North Bay make their sentence to read 30 to 60 days at prison camp.

The new order of things is now common knowledge among the hobnobbers of the Atlantic to the Pacific, and indignation meetings have been held by the tin-can brigade beside many camp fires.

The result is that routes are being hastily changed and the ban placed on the recruiting ground for the good roads army. Since the first batch of prisoners was sent north Police Court business in North Bay has steadily dwindled, and time expended at the county jail can be seen making for the C. P. R. tracks and hiking westward without even paying a visit down town.

Heretofore North Bay has been the clearing house of that vast army of wanderers who pass up and down the country, work a little, drink a lot, some harmless, others of the Yegg type and dangerous, causing constant police vigilance, being a railroad centre and distributing point for the Cobalt country, south and west. Now all is changed, and the worst class have passed it up.

dy bear, but the children will be safe from further acquaintance. The frequency with which wild animals, particularly deer, are seen in the park in close proximity to Banff, is undoubtedly due to the law enforcing the tying up of all dogs and the sealing of all fire arms.

YOUNG GIRL MURDERED

Cumberland, Md., June 24.—The body of Alice Brown, aged 18, was found with her throat cut in a clump of bushes here yesterday. Buck Nolan, 19 years old, with blood stained hands and clothing, and "be imprint of teeth on his arms, is in jail charged with the murder, and Earl Mudge and Lorrn Barringer, young men, are held as witnesses.

"After all," said Hi Tragedy, solemnly, "death is the star tragedian." "I don't know," replied Love Comedy. "I always think of him as a low comedian—a mere mimic—because he is always taking someone off."

CONSERVATIVE PRECEDENTS WERE QUOTED

which the Conservatives changed premises without holding a single general election.

Elections are Costly

"The reason there is no general election now is because there was one last year. Elections are held at the expense of the people. What the Conservatives want is to try and get three or four more of their party into the house at the expense of the people of Alberta."

"Now, Mr. McCaul has said that the last government was elected to support 'Rutherford, Railways and Good Government.' And that is the present policy. Mr. McCaul knows that 'Rutherford' is not a policy. He merely strained a point when he said that because Mr. Rutherford had resigned, the government was not supporting railway building and good government."

"Now Mr. McCaul has said that the progressive building of railways in this province would be a platform supported by even the Conservative party. But they did not do it when they had the chance several years ago. But under the Liberal party, railways have been built in this province, and conditions vastly improved from what they were under the Conservative regime."

"You have been told that the resignation of the position of Chief Justice was a serious matter. It was. Deeply did I consider when I was asked to enter politics. I know and you know that British Law must be held in the highest esteem and respect in this province. Politics must have nothing to do with the law. And I may say that I held this rule inviolate during my incumbency on the Bench. Not once for six years did I take any part in politics or attend any public political meeting."

"Mr. McCaul, as a last resource, wanted to know what my policy on the public lands was going to be. He claims the policy of the province owning the public lands was a Conservative policy. Strange, indeed, when you remember that it was the Conservatives who set the example in Manitoba of allowing the public lands to remain in the control of the Dominion. And yet, Mr. McCaul has hinted that the principles of the Conservative party never change. If this is so, they must still believe that public lands should be under Dominion control."

Mr. Sifton then referred to the A. & G. W. contract and again explained its position, and how it would be instantly on his part to make public what action the government intended to take.

"If this position does not satisfy both Conservatives and Liberals in this province they will have to get another premier," concluded Mr. Sifton. "For I know what I believe is my duty in this matter, and I would not be true to myself and to the people if I did otherwise."

The applause lasted for several minutes as Mr. Sifton sat down, and the meeting broke up with cheers.

RETAIL MERCHANTS' FORM ASSOCIATION

Organization Is to Renew Its Activities With Stronger Membership Than Ever

The Retail Merchants' Association had a revival meeting on Wednesday night in the Imperial Shoe Store and the success attendant upon it augurs well for the future. A general discussion took place and several members brought up some interesting points in connection with retail work.

Most of those present had some point to raise as to the great use to him, or to some other merchant which the organization might have been on some special occasion. Many instances of the weakness of the individual trader against superior weight and money-force were given, all of which could be remedied in quick order with an active and efficient executive of a strong and representative body of the retail interests of the city.

It was remarked by one member present that it was an extraordinary thing that the retail men were practically the only class who failed hitherto in fighting a common enemy shoulder to shoulder. Every class of labor, every profession and every other form of commercial interests were strengthened by Union. The retail men stood alone content to be dealt with by corporations and any and everyone as individuals. This situation will now be no longer the case, and a strong and aggressive policy will be followed in the future.

Mr. E. J. Hart, of the Boston Clothing Store was invited to take the presidency of the association, while Mr. Webb, of the Imperial Shoe Store, was unanimously elected vice-president. On Tuesday next another meeting will be held in the board of trade rooms at eight o'clock and a large attendance is expected.

WHAT GENERAL ASSEMBLY SAID

Rev. J. M. Millar of Strathcona Gives Complete Report of Important Resolution

AYLESWORTH'S PARDON

Mr. Millar Said That This Was One of Most Significant Actions of Meeting

The Rev. J. M. Millar who has just returned from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church at Halifax, says that one of the most significant actions of the great gathering was its resolution dealing with the language and attitude of the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice, when he pardoned from the Central Prison, Toronto, the two criminals, Skill and King, who had been convicted of a regular traffic in degrading and immoral literature, a business that brought in very large profits and was carried on through the mails in different parts of Canada.

The general assembly does not complain of the shortening of the sentence of one year after two months imprisonment, but simply of the public explanation of defence.

The facts of this now notorious case are briefly as follows: Last June and July Skill and King ran a book business under the name of "The Toronto Antiquarian Company," were both charged with having in their possession "for sale," distribution and circulation certain obscene books and certain pictures tending to corrupt morals.

After some delay these men were regularly tried and on the advice of their own counsel pleaded "guilty" and were sentenced by His Honor, Judge Winchester to one year in the Central Prison. Dr. Arthur Jukes Johnson, the chief coroner for Toronto, had been subpoenaed by the Crown to give evidence.

He declared that the books were "unadulterated filth." "The contents of B. are obscene stories." "The contents of A. Volume 2 is simply filth." The circulars advertising these elegantly bound and expensive books were also indecent. The editor of the Globe after a careful examination of a dozen of these books says: "As literature they range all the way from the scrofulous French novel, unexpurgated, vilely illustrated, and elegantly bound, to the still more lecherous exposition and advocacy of the grossest, unnatural sensuality."

In the face of these facts and more Mr. Aylesworth pardoned the men, declaring on the floor of the House, according to Hansard, that "they were not guilty of the offence with which they were charged." After a great deal of criticism has been given, he again declared that he had done right.

In view of these facts it will be seen at once how important is the resolution of the General Assembly. No government can allow this solemn and lofty protest to pass unheeded. It was moved by the ex-Moderator, Rev. Dr. Lyle, and by Principal Patrick of Manitoba College, and adopted unanimously. The resolution is as follows:

"Whereas Messrs. Skill and King, Toronto booksellers, doing business under various firm names, having been committed for trial in the police court, were indicted before the Court of General Sessions for that they 'knowingly and without lawful justification or excuse did sell, distribute and circulate certain obscene books tending to corrupt morals';

"And Whereas, on coming to trial, they, on advice of their counsel pleaded 'guilty' and were sentenced to one year's imprisonment;

"And Whereas, at the end of two months, the prisoners were summarily released on the advice of the Honorable the Minister of Justice, who in defending his action in the House of Commons, said, inter alia, 'So far as the papers show, the business was the ordinary legitimate business of respectable bookselling,' and 'I gave my advice to His Excellency that these men should be summarily released, because, in my humble judgment, speaking as a lawyer, they were not guilty of the offence with which they were charged.'"

"And Whereas, the General Assembly has satisfied itself that, when the case was under consideration by the Honorable the Minister of Justice, the following facts were before him on the signature of the Crown Prosecutor:

"1. That repeatedly during two years preceding the arrest and prosecution of the prisoners, the Customs and Postal authorities had confiscated copies of the very books in question consigned to or mailed by them on the grounds that they were obscene and indecent according to the regulations of the Customs and Post Office Departments.

"2. That the American Post Office authorities had intercepted their advertising circulars and sent them to the Postmaster-General at Ottawa and he to the Post Office authorities in Toronto, and that it was at the instance of the latter that the prisoners were brought to trial.

"3. That the chief Coroner of Toronto, in an official report on the books had condemned them as 'not scientific' and as 'unadulterated filth.'"

"4. That the chief librarian of Toronto, having examined the books had reported that they were 'obscene and unfit for publication.'"

"5. That the circular in which the prisoners advertised these books sending out as many as 300 per month, a copy of which was in the hands of the Honorable the Minister of Justice, described them in language manifestly intended them to commend them to the prurient mind.

"And Whereas, after some twelve of these books had been in possession of the Minister and had been examined by him, he declared in Parliament, 'so far as the papers show, and so far as any report on the matter which I have received shows, the business was the ordinary legitimate business of respectable book-selling.'"

"And Whereas, two weeks later, after he had been severely criticized in the public press, he said again in the House: 'If the same thing were to be considered over again, under the same circumstances, I should act: in exactly the way in which I have acted throughout. I have taken the course which I thought was right, and which I still think was right.'"

"And Whereas the General Assembly in the light of the facts above narrated, and in the face of the Minister of Justice, having carefully examined the contents of several of these books, feels bound to declare them obscene, and corrupting.

"And Whereas, the General Assembly cannot but feel that a situation of the utmost gravity has in consequence, been created inasmuch as, if the action and utterances of the Minister of Justice remain unchallenged and are to influence the administration of law in similar cases, our country is exposed to the unrestricted continuance of the traffic in such degrading literature.

"Therefore the General Assembly, in view of the premises above recited, deems it to be its solemn duty respectfully to lay before the Right Honorable the Prime Minister this deliverance, and appeal to him to take such action as will avert this grave peril imminently threatening our national life."

The Rev. J. M. Millar of Strathcona during his sermon last Sunday evening drew the attention of the large congregation to this serious situation. He declared that the resolution was a momentous one and constituted in one sense the most terrific arraignment of a cabinet minister in Canadian history. "Mr. Aylesworth," said he, "is acknowledged by all to be a most brilliant lawyer, but he has failed tragically in his high and responsible position of trust. In public life we must have more than mere intellectual cleverness; we must have moral fibre. It is impossible that the prime minister should allow this lofty and noble appeal to the moral conscience of Canada to pass unheeded. Such a course would be suicidal."

LOST CHILD FOUND

A lot of anxiety was experienced yesterday and throughout the night over the disappearance of the five-year-old son of Mr. P. McKay, manager of the Imperial Hotel, but this morning he was found staying with friends. When his disappearance began to assume mysterious proportions the police were communicated with and they worked all night without finding a clue to the little chap's whereabouts. A Mrs. Hamilton this morning told the boy's parents that he had been spending the night at her house, which information brought untold relief.

SCOTCH PAPER ON EDMONTON

Galloway Gazette Comments Favorably on Booklet Issued by Board of Trade

Taken from "The Galloway Gazette," Newton-Stewart, Scotland, of June 24th: "Something About Edmonton."—Under the above title the Edmonton, Alberta, Board of Trade have published a neat little booklet, setting forth the attractions of this particular district of Canada. Anyone thinking of trying his fortune in the West should make a point of obtaining a copy of this booklet, as the information it contains will prove of great value to the prospective settler. The Edmonton district has always been favored with a very considerable percentage of Scotchmen, who, it is needless to say, invariably find their feet and make their way. Many of the most successful farmers, as well as the leading business men, are from the land of cakes, and in this connection it might be mentioned that the president of the Edmonton Board of Trade—Mr. James McGeorge—is from Castle Douglas. Mr. McGeorge has certainly "made good" at Edmonton. The last mayor of Edmonton was Mr. John Alexander McDougall, and an earlier incumbent of the office was Kenneth Mackenzie. The name of the Premier of Alberta, Alexander Cameron Rutherford, is also suggestive of the land north of the Tweed. There are still lots of opportunities in Alberta for Scotchmen of the right class.

HEAT LEADS TO SUICIDE

New York, June 23—The fourth day of heat has brought four more deaths and a long list of prostrations. One man, tortured by his inability to sleep owing to heat, cut his throat. This condition is serious.

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST RUSSIAN

As Result of Dispute Over House Saskatchewan Settler Lands in Jail

Borden, Sask. June 23—Vasil Smimoff, a Russian, who owns a farm east of Borden, was arrested by the R.N.W.M.P. on a charge of attempted murder. He was brought before the local magistrate yesterday. While Alex. Domasoff was removing a house from the dismantled Doukhobors' village, the site of which had been sold to the Doukhobors to Smimoff, the latter came up and demanded that the house had not been taken away within the fourteen days he had allowed for the clearance of buildings, the house must be left. Naturally, Domasoff objected to have his house confiscated in this manner. Smimoff, it appears, flew into a rage, seized Alex. Domasoff and rushed at Domasoff, aimed a blow at the latter's head, which, however, Domasoff successfully dodged, eventually escaping. Smimoff

PUBLIC ABATTOIR IS RECOMMENDED

Manitoba Commission Reports in Favor of Union Yard at St. Boniface

RAILWAYS REPRESENTED

Report Also Suggests a Commission to Which Railways May Appoint Representatives

Winnipeg, June 24.—The Abattoir Commission made public their report tonight. It is a voluminous affair, but the chief points are that the C. P. R. does not wish to discontinue its present stock yards in Winnipeg, but will become a party to the public abattoir in St. Boniface, there being no place in Winnipeg accessible to all railways.

The public market and abattoir shall be under the control of a board composed of five members appointed by the Manitoba government, two by the C. P. R., one by the C. N. R. and one by the G. T. P. The liabilities have to be apportioned in the same way.

The principal provisions are that all charges and rates for yardage, caring for, feeding, resting, marketing, and handling shall be subject to the approval of Lieutenant Governor in Council. That there shall be no switching charges by any of the railway companies to the public abattoir or markets, and that no one of the railway companies shall have a majority control of the management of the public market, and that no person, company, firm or corporation shall receive or be given any preference or advantage in tolls, rates or charges, or in any respect whatever. That all animals, upon being unloaded at the said public market shall be yarded, fed and watered, before being weighed.

WOMEN WILL VOTE SAYS J. S. WILLISON

Toronto Editor Tells Women's Press Club His Ideas of the Future

Toronto, June 24.—"Within the next 30 years every woman will vote or have the right to vote, and within the same period, 25 or 30 per cent. of all women will smoke," said J. S. Willison, editor in chief of the News, in an address to the annual meeting of the Women's Press Club yesterday afternoon. About 75 members of the club attended the meeting. There are now local branches in Toronto, Winnipeg, Edmonton, Regina, Vancouver, and the Thunder Bay branch at Port Arthur and Fort William. The total membership is about 120.

The newly elected officers are: Hon. president, Mrs. C. P. Walker, Winnipeg; president, Miss Marjory MacMurray, Toronto (re-elected); vice-president for British Columbia and Alberta, Mrs. Isabella Ecclestone Mackay; vice-president for Saskatchewan and Manitoba, Mrs. Bertha Regina; vice-president for Ontario and Quebec, Miss Alice Read, Port Arthur; vice-president for the Maritime Provinces, Miss L. Montgomery, Cavendish, P. E. I.; recording secretary, Miss Lillian Beyer, Winnipeg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fairhair Fraser, Toronto; auditor, Miss Lediard, Winnipeg; historian, Miss Katherine Hughes, Edmonton.

SACRED CANTATA GIVEN

The sacred cantata, "Daniel," was rendered by the choir of the First Baptist church last night and the church was well filled with members of the congregation besides many outsiders. The cantata was rendered in a masterful way under the able direction of Hugh A. Watt. There are a number of exceedingly fine voices in the choir and they were heard to great advantage. There were several solos, Mrs. T. R. Freeze, Mrs. A. O. Wetmore, tenor; Messrs. Hugh A. Watt and T. R. Freeze, baritone, contributing to that part of the programme.

The Day in Strathcona

Dr. Tory is expected back today from his holiday at Banff.

Last evening the special council meeting was somewhat of a failure. At 8:30 the roll was called and it was found that there was not a quorum.

The plans for the new school building, to be erected east of Mill Creek for the convenience of the pupils living there, are now completed. The plans for the building, which will cost about $15,000, are to be seen at the offices of Messrs. Willson and Litherly.

It is expected that the school board will now be in a position to call for tenders at an early date. Mr. John S. Frazer, immigration officer at Strathcona, was away yesterday on his usual inspection trip to Lacombe, which is the changing place for immigrants who wish to locate on the Castor and Stettler branches. Mr. Frazer said that there was a steady flow of settlers into that district, the majority of them being Scotch. While down there he took particular note of the crops which are doing exceedingly well. The wheat is already heading out, rye will be in bloom in a few days time, and altogether the prospects are that there will be a record crop this year.

At the Immigration Hall settlers are still coming in from all parts. Yesterday two men from Oklahoma were in the city, looking round with a view to locating, while a family named Wood from Sterling, Scotland, and another named Cameron from Aberdeen have just arrived with the same intention. Alberta seems to be benefiting greatly by the emigration movement which is at present going on in Scotland, the majority that pass through the Immigration Hall at present being of that nationality.

PRESENTED NEW INSTRUMENTS

A happy event in the history of the local branch of the Salvation Army took place last night when His Worship Mayor Lee presented four new silver instruments to the band at the Army Citadel, Fraser avenue. The hall was crowded to capacity with followers of the army, and much interest was evinced in the proceedings. Ensign Habkirk presided. Besides the Mayor, addresses were given by several of the bandmen who gave a history of the Edmonton band, referring to its early struggles for recognition. In introducing the Mayor, Ensign Habkirk referred to the great interest His Worship took in the progress of the army and the honor he had done them in consenting to officiate at the presentation.

His Worship said that the honor was his and went on to say that he followed with deep interest the progress of the army in its commendable efforts. He would always be at the service of the army and would be ready to do anything in his power at any time to assist them.

At the conclusion of the presentation refreshments were served.

THE "ALASKAN" COMING

A brand new revised edition of "The Alaskan" now made over into a genuine fun-making musical melange will be the attraction at the Empire next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 30th, July 1st and 2nd.

"The Alaskan" has never been seen here before. It comes to us now from a phenomenal run of five months in Chicago, where the entire press of that city lauded it as "the boldest musical show seen there in years." Manager William P. Cullen, who has given us many good things, viz., "The Burgomaster," and "The Tenderfoot," is the producer, and he has been especially happy in the formation of the present company. The complete Chicago production intact will be brought here. Richard F. Carroll and Gus Weinberg are responsible for many of the new, novel surprises and exclusive features with which "The Alaskan" fairly bristles, and in the part of Walsingham Watts, a stranded theatrical manager, Carroll has a part exactly suited to his peculiar talent. Gus Weinberg as Professor Knucklebein, is prominent among the fun-makers, and is given ample opportunity to extract many laughs with the aid of his "laughing powder," not saying anything about his natural spontaneous humor. Detmar Popen will be welcomed as Totem Pole Pete, while Al Rauh will show his splendid voice to advantage as Richard Attwater, Jessie Stoner as Arlee Easton, Alice Keen as Mrs. Good, Better Best, Rita Lockhart as Kuko, an Esquimo child of nature; also Nellie Templeton as La La La; not forgetting Leo Kendall in the now famous character of "Snowball," the polar bear, who will be welcomed. The many new musical interpolations, including "Snowballing," in which the entire audience takes part and the same self audience is allowed to pet; back Laughing Powder, "Hi Hi Hi," "The Face of the Girl I Love," and twenty other old song hits of last season, including "My Totem Pole." The large chorus of Esquimo girls and miners is again a strong factor in this season's organization.
